VOL. XIV. ASHEVILLE, N. C., OCTOBER 30, 1862. NO. 119.

THE ASHEVILLE NEWS.

BY THOMAS W. ATKIN.

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

THURSDAY, OCT'R 30, 1862.

TERMS.—$1 50 per annum, strictly in advance. To clubs of ten or more, at $1 each.—All papers are discontinued as soon as the time paid for expires.

☞Rev. P. W. Edwards and Col. S. Walker are our Agents for Haywood county.

EXTORTION.

One of our merchants showed us the other day a piece of domestic—common unbleached cotton—containing 32 yards, for which he paid the manufacturer $16, being 50 cents per yard. It weighed about 11 pounds. Now let any one make the calculation, and he will see that the piece did not cost the manufacturer at the outside more than $4. He thus pockets $12 in the way of profits on a single piece of goods! If this is not extortion in its most aggravated form, please tell us what would be. The truth is, the manufacturers are the men who are ruining the country. What excuse is there for putting spun cotton at $6 or $7 a bale? None whatever.

When the war is over, which it must be some time, then we say let these miserable skinflints look out. Not a dollar in the way of protection from the Government will they get, and as they cannot compete with European establishments, their thieving manufactories will go by the board, as they ought so do. They are sucking the life blood of our young Confederacy, and when our liberties are achieved, as they will be, in spite of Yankees, extortioners and the devil, we hope to see them adequately rewarded. They are earning a harvest of curses, which, sooner or later, will be visited upon them.

WHY IS IT?

Why is it that with the best ore in the world not a pound of Iron is manufactured in this State west of the Blue Ridge? Will some one explain. Forty thousand dollars, judiciously expended, would put up all the necessary machinery for manufacturing iron of every quality on an extensive scale, and Yancy county alone has ore enough to supply the whole State of North Carolina with iron. It can't be for want of capital, for there is enough of that lying idle in this county to set up a dozen such establishments. It can't be that the business would not prove remunerative, for the iron manufacturers are realizing immense fortunes, and will continue to do so while the article commands the present fabulous prices. Then why is it? Is it because we have not the enterprise? "Tell it not in Gath, publish it notin the streets of Askelon."

GOOD SEGARS.

The Asheville Segar Factory is now turning out a large quantity of No. 1 Segars. William Murdoch, Esq., the enterprising proprietor, has laid on our table a package equal to the best brands. We are glad to learn that he has orders for them about as fast as they can be filled. The smoking public are learning that good Segars can be made in Buncombe as well as elsewhere.

ANOTHER FIGHT NEAR CHARLESTON.

The Yankees moved towards Pocotaligo on the 22d, when a fight took place, resulting as the former one in a complete repulse of the vandals. The following dispatch is the latest from the scene of conflict:

Charleston, Oct. 24.—The fight at Pocotaligo resulted in a complete victory for us. Our loss was fifteen killed and forty wounded. The enemy left forty dead on the field. His total loss, as confirmed by the accounts of prisoners, was not less than two hundred killed and wounded. We took eighty small arms. The enemy's force consisted of six regiments, with one field battery and two boat howitzers.

10 p. m.—All accounts show the Pocotaligo fight to have been hotly contested and a glorious victory—in fact, another Secessionville affair.—The enemy's gunboats this evening left Mackay's Point, going back to Port Royal.

COMPLIMENTARY.

The London Post, speaking of Lincoln's emancipation proclamation, says "it is not easy to estimate how utterly powerless and contemptible a Government must have become which would sanction, with its approval, such insensate trash."

THE LEGISLATURE.

The Legislature will not meet until the regular time, which is the third Monday in November. Gov. Vance called the Council of State together to consider the propriety of assembling the Legislature at an earlier day but failed to get a quorum to meet.

☞We regret to learn that the Methodist E. Church on Newfound, in this county, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday the 22d of October. The Church was a new one—not quite finished—and will be a great loss to the community. The fire was accidental.

☞We had a heavy rain last Saturday night, followed by a whizzing snow storm on Sunday.

☞We have received the first number of the Daily State Journal. It is edited with much ability, and will, we trust, receive a liberal support.

☞Whenever Mr. Lincoln now appears in public, on horseback or in his carriage, he goes through the streets at a rapid pace, escorted by a cavalry guard of about twenty men, half of whom are in the advance and the remainder in the rear of their Presidential charge.

☞The following letter from "our George" was not written for publication, but we take the liberty of using it in that way, knowing it will be of interest to some of our readers:

KNOXVILLE, TENN., Oct. 24, 1862.

DEAR FATHER:—It has been nearly 3 months since I wrote to you last, but it was because I had no way of getting it to you. Since I wrote I have footed it to the Ohio and back, a distance of over 700 miles—have not been sick a minute since I wrote, and walked every foot of the way. I walked off 25 pounds of flesh, though.

We started from here on the 13th of August; going through Clinton, Jacksboro', Big Creek Gap, to Boston, Ky., Barbersville, London, and on to Richmond. We met with some opposition at Richmond, but we very soon cleaned them out, capturing every thing they had, including 6000 prisoners. From there we went to Lexington, next to Peris, Cynthiana, and on to Covington; stayed there two days and nights, and fell back to Lexington. Next came the fight of Perryville. From there we fell back until we got out of Kentucky. We brought out every thing we captured, including thousands upon thousands of yards of Janes for clothing.

We never would have left the State if Kirby Smith had been in command, but would have been snugly housed up in Louisville, to-day.

Bragg is not the man to command a large army, he has not got the head. He gets credit for what was done in Ky., when, in reality, he did nothing. Kirby Smith captured every thing that was taken. His was the only force that went to the Ohio. What is to be done next I am unable to say. Buell is pushing for Tenn. again, I believe, and I suppose Bragg's command will go down towards Nashville.

We suffered a great deal for water while we were in Ky. Two thirds of the time drinking Green Poind water. Your son, GEORGE.

TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

After the most strenuous exertions on the part of its officers, the State finds it impossible to clothe and shoe our soldiers without again appealing to that overflowing fountain of generous charity—the private contributions of our people. The rigors of winter are approaching, our soldiers are already suffering, and must suffer more if our sympathies are not practical and active. The Quarter Master's Department is laboring faithfully to provide for them, but, owing to speculation and extortion, will fall short. The deficiency must be supplied by the people. We shall have an active winter campaign, and how can our troops, if ragged, cold and barefoot, contend with the splendidly equipped columns of the enemy?

The articles most needed, and which the State finds it most difficult to supply, are shoes, socks and blankets, though drawers, shirts and pants would be gladly received. If every farmer who has hides tanning would agree to spare one pair of shoes, and if every mother in North Carolina would knit one strong pair of either thick cotton or woolen socks for the army, they would be abundantly supplied. A great lot of blankets also might yet be spared from private use, and thousands could be made from the carpets upon our parlor floors. With good warm houses and cotton bed clothing, we can certainly get through the winter much better than the soldiers can with all the blankets we can give them.

The Colonels of the Militia Regiments throughout the State are hereby appointed agents for the purchase and collection of all such articles as can be spared by our people, who, through their respective Captains, are ordered immediately to canvass every county and visit every citizen in their beats for this purpose. A liberal price will be paid for everything where the owner feels that he or she is not able to donate it; and active agents will immediately forward them to our suffering regiments. Expenses will be allowed the officers engaged in this duty, and transportation furnished the Colonels or their agents to bring the articles to Raleigh.

And now my countrymen and women, if you have any thing to spare for the soldier, in his name I appeal to you for it. Do not let the speculator have it, though he offer you enormous prices: spurn him from your door and say to him, that our brave defenders have need for it and shall have it without passing through his greedy fingers. Do not place yourselves among the extortioners—they are the vilest and most cowardly of all our country's enemies, and when this war is ended and people come to view the matter in its proper light you will find that the most detested tories are more respected than they. When they tempt you with higher prices than the State offers, just think for a moment of the soldier and what he is doing for you. Remember when you sit down by the bright and glowing fire, that the soldier is sitting upon the cold earth; that in the wind which is whistling so fearfully over your roof, only making you feel the more comfortable because it harms you not, he is shivering in darkness on the dangerous out-post, or shuddering through the dreary hours of his watch. Remember that when you come forth in the morning well fed and warmly clad, leading your families toward the spot where the blessed music of the Sabbath-bells tells you of the peaceful worship of the God of Peace, the soldier is going forth at the same moment, perhaps, half fed, after a night of shivering and suffering to where the roar of artillery and shout of battle announce that he is to die, that your peace and safety may be preserved. Oh, remember these things generous and patriotic people of North Carolina, and give freely of your perishable goods to those who are giving all that mortal man can give for your safety and your rights. Z. B. VANCE.

Raleigh, October 15, 1862.

The above stirring appeal will commend itself to every one. Donations from citizens in this Captain's Company will be received and properly forwarded by Capt. A. T. Summey. Those who have any of the needed articles to spare and are not able to donate them, will be liberally paid for them by Capt. Summey.

☞GEN. LEE'S ARMY.—The Lynchburg Republican, of October 24th, says that the report that Jackson had crossed into Maryland, was reiterated by passengers on the Orange train last night, with seeming confidence in its truth.

They also report that he had made a dash upon the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and damaged it most seriously.

The crossing is said to have been effected near Williamsport, the Yankees retiring before him. These reports are given for what they are worth. We do not pretend to vouch for their accuracy. Knoxville Register.

THE NEW CONSCRIPTION.—President Davis has caused a special order to be issued by Adjutant General Cooper, calling for the enrollment of all between the ages of 18 and 40, who are not exempt. There is, no doubt, an absolute need of more men. The first conscription has been partially executed in some of the States.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE NEWS.

FROM COL. McDOWELL'S REGIMENT.

CAMP DEAVER, BRIDGEPORT, ALA., Oct. 15, 1862.

Editor Asheville News:

As your last paper did not contain the result of the organization of our Regiment, I presume that you have not been informed of the fact, I will therefore give it to you:

Colonel—J. A. McDowell;
Lieut. Colonel—W. H. Deaver;
Major—W. W. McDowell;
Adjutont—E. M. Clayton;
Quarter Master—W. A. Patton;
Commissary—R. L. Coleman;
Surgeon—J. M. Stevens;
Assistant Surgeon—J. D. Reynolds.

We have ten companies—nine from North Carolina and one from Tennessee. A better body of men, and more easily controlled, I never saw. All are in fine spirits at the prospect of meeting the Yankees. Two of our companies have not been drilled any; the rest can drill pretty well. The health of the command is very good. We left a few sick at Greeneville under the care of Dr. J. D. Reynolds—only one that was regarded as dangerous, and I do not now remember his name. For the information of friends who may wish to write, I will give you the names of the Captains and letter of the Company:

Co. A, Capt. Hardy,	Co. F, Capt. Ray,
" B, " Duckett,	" G, " Roberts,
" C, " Reynolds,	" H, " Huff,
" D, " Fletcher,	" I, " Ward,
" E, " Candler,	" K, " West.

Letters should be directed to the 60th Regiment N. C. Troops.

Our destination at present is Murfreesborough, Tenn. I suppose we will remain there for some time. For the present send your paper to us at that point. Five of our companies left here this morning—I hope to be able to move the remaining five this evening. We are in a fine looking country here, but the crops are very bad; they have suffered severely from the drought. As I have but little time, and a bad way of writing, I will stop for the present. You can give publicity to such portions of this as you may think proper, for the information of those interested.

Very truly, * * *

HEADQUARTERS THOMAS' LEGION, STRAWBERRY PLAINS, TENN., Oct. 23, 1862.

Editor Asheville News:

I left the army of Northern Virginia on the 5th inst., with Co.'s A and L, (Jackson and Haywood Rangers,) 16th Reg't N. C. T., Gen. Pender's Brigade, Maj. Gen. A. P. Hill's Division, and Maj. Gen. Jackson's corps, for this place. Having been transferred on that day to the Military Department of Eastern Tennessee. This arrangement leaves in the gallant 16th Regiment ten companies. The Regiment has a proud name, and the deeds of the gallant dead of our mountain boys, left on every battle-field, from Mechaniesville to Shepherdstown, will live with posterity after this wicked and cruel war shall have been written by the historian.

Yours, truly,

J. R. LOVE, Lieut. Col.
Thomas' Legion.

REMARKABLE LETTER OF GEN. SCOTT.

John Van Buren in his speech at the great meeting in New York, read the following letter, written by Gen. Scott, as its date indicates, the day before the inauguration of Lincoln.

WASHINGTON, March 3, 1861.

DEAR SIR: Hoping that in a day or two the new President will have happily passed through all personal dangers, and find himself installed an honored successor of the great Washington, with you as chief of his Cabinet, I beg leave to report in writing what I have before said to you orally, this supplement to my printed "views" (dated in October last) on the highly disordered condition of our (so late) happy and glorious Union.

To meet the extraordinary exigencies of the times, it seems to me that I am guilty of no arrogance in limiting the President a field of selection to one of the four plans of procedure subjoined:

1. Throw off the old and assume a new designation—the Union party. Adopt the conciliatory measures proposed by Mr. Crittenden on the Peace Convention—[applause]—and, my life upon it, we shall have no new case of secession; but, on the contrary, an early return of many, if not all, of the States which have already broken off from the Union. Without some equally benign measures the remaining slave-holding States will probably join the Montgomery Confederacy in less than sixty days, when this city being included in a foreign country, would require a permanent garrison of at least 35,000 troops to protect the Government within it.

I stop here to call your attention to the fact that Maryland did not join the Montgomery Confederacy, and yet with Maryland on our side to-night, it requires a garrison of 150,000 men to protect Washington. [Applause.]

2. Collect the duties on foreign goods outside the ports of which this Government has lost the command, or close such ports by act of Congress and blockade them.

[And this, unhappily, was the course that was entered upon.]

3. Conquer the seceded States by invading armies. No doubt this might be done in two or three years by a young and able General—a Wolfe, a Desaix, or a Hoche, with 300,000 disciplined men—estimating a third for garrisons, and the loss of a yet greater number by skirmishes, sieges, battles, and Southern fevers. The destruction of life and property on the other side would be frightful, however perfect the moral discipline of the invaders.

The conquest completed at that enormous waste of human life to the North and Northwest with at least $250,000,000 added thereto, and cui bono? Fifteen devastated provinces, not to be brought into harmony with their conquerors, but to be held for generations, by heavy garrisons, at an expense quadruple the net duties or taxes which it would be possible to extort from them, followed by a protector or an emperor.

4. Say to the seceded States—wayward sisters depart in peace.

In haste, I remain very truly yours,
WINFIELD SCOTT.

Hon. WM. H. SEWARD, &c., &c., &c.

☞The editor of the Cleaveland (Tenn.) Banner has the following in his paper. We are not requested to copy, but his case has so worked upon our sympathies that we cannot refrain from inserting his advertisement. We hope somebody will see this who can supply his wants and hasten to do so:

WANTED.—We want to buy a coon and 'possum dog, to hunt our meat with during the coming year: It is foolish for a man to think about buying hog meat who is printing a paper at $2 a year. A dog that will hunt coon, 'possum, and kill a sheep occasionally, will command a good price at these "headquarters."

WILL SECEDE.—A few days ago, Gov. Morton, of Indiana, made a speech in Washington city, in which he declared that if the South succeeded in this rebellion, it would be impossible to hold the remaining States together. The inference is, that in the event supposed, the Northwest will exercise the right of secession, and separate herself from the remaining fragments of the old Union.

☞There are 15,000 men in camp in Massachusetts, and the Boston Post says that Gov. Andrews has announced his determination that not another soldier shall leave the State until he is satisfied that "the right man is to be in command of the Union forces."

☞Gen. Jim Lane's negro brigade was whipped on the 10th by a company of Missouri militia, while attempting to cross from Kansas into Missouri.

☞General Morgan dashed into Lexington on Saturday morning and compelled the Federal garrison to surrender.

THE REASON.—The Richmond Examiner says: The enormous rise in gold in New York, from a hundred and twenty-three to a hundred and twenty-six, leads many to suppose that the news of Buell's complete defeat was then already known, though not published. But this opinion will be found on examination, destitute of support. This battle has nothing to do with the rise in gold. None of these battles have produced any serious effect upon the price of gold in New York. Its continued rise is a circumstance perhaps of greater importance than all the battles put together, when considered in relation to the probable termination of the war. It is the result of the decreasing credit and increasing inflation of the Federal currency. The tendency of gold to rise has been opposed by the Federal Government with all the cunning and energy at its command, but this sudden jump of three per cent. in a day, is an indication that the power of finance is very nearly at an end, and that artificial agencies can no longer control the law of nature. Its relations with the battle of Perryville, however, are of the most general character.

WHAT IT COSTS.—Putting down the slaveholders' rebellion is a very expensive as well as bloody business. Congress, at its recent session, passed bills which, in the aggregate, appropriated out of she Treasury the sum of $913,078.527.63. At the extra session, last summer, Congress appropriated $265,103,296.90. The total amount, therefore, for the two sessions, reaches the enormous sum of $1,178,181,823.62. Nearly all of this vast outlay was rendered necessary by the rebellion. At the recent session, the army bill alone appropriated within a fraction of $559,000,000—an amount larger, no doubt, than was ever before embraced in one law or decree of any Government on earth. Look at the aggregate of the two sessions—eleven hundred and seventy-eight million, one hundred and eighty-one thousand and eight hundred and twenty-four dollars and sixty-two cents- and tell us if the work of crushing out this "irregular opposition" to the National Government, which "our misguided Southern brethren" have organized, will not only make them expensive relatives to their cotemporaries, but cause their memories to be very dear to posterity?—New York Tribune.

THE GRAND MOVEMENT IN KENTUCKY.—Never since the war commenced, has there been so grand and profitable a tour made, as the one just accomplished by Gen. Bragg. Just think of it, he has captured from the enemy, and purchased from the citizens together enough to load a train of wagons forty miles long. His whole army has fell back towards the Gap to protect this valuable train and as it is now safe from capture, Bragg will retire with his army just where it suits him.

The arrival of this train will play smash with the Jeans speculation in this county, as it is bringing one million yards of good Kentucky Jeans. They also bring a large amount of clothing, boots and shoes. Two hundred wagon loads of bacon, six thousand barrels of pickle pork, fifteen thousand good mules and horses, eight thousand beeves, and a large lot of hogs. No wonder Braggs army fell back to protect such a valuable cargo.

The trains bringing the spoils taken in Kentucky, by Gen. Bragg, continue to arrive at Morristown. The whole face of the earth around that place is covered with wagons.—Greenville Banner.

☞A letter to the Chicago Times from Columbus, Kentucky, foreshadows a gloomy future for the negro in the North. The writer, who is in the army, and speaking of the laboring class of the soldiery, says: "Their places (of occupation at home) in their absence are to be filled by the negro; their labor, when they do return, is to be brought into competition and depreciation with black labor. Let one go among the troops and hear the menaces of extermination of the black race North when they return, and their bitter denunciation of the emancipation policy, and if he were not blinded by abolition party prejudice, he would prophesy the seeds are sown for another terrible outbreak in the future, in which the poor helpless and innocent negro will be driven forth from the North with slaughter and confusion."

☞The Washington correspondent of the New York World says:

"A leading General in the Army of the Potomac, one who is noted for saying very little, and that little very reliable, said yesterday that he should not be surprised if the war was virtually terminated by Christmas."

The correspondent of the Evening Post makes substantially the same statement.

☞The Democratic gain in Ohio is fifty thousand. The Democrats have a majority in the Legislatures of Indiana and Pennsylvania, which will secure them two Senators in the place of Bright's successor and Wilmot.

DEATHS.

LINES,

In memory of my brother, M. D. L. Garmon, of the 29th N. C. Troops, who died in the stage on his way home from the army, at Cumberland Gap, without a relative or friend near to minister to his wants, or hear his dying words:

Eight months ago he bid a sad farewell,
To the home of his loved ones—
He went forth in tented fields to dwell,
Far from his native bowers.

There were lips that spake a sad adieu,
And eyes from whence the warm tears started,
And there were many hearts that sadder grew,
As he departed.

But duty bade him to the tented field,
To leave his smiling home afar;
His God would be his armor and shield,
Amidst the din of war.

Ever at his post, faithful, brave and true,
No harsh word to him ever was spoken—
When he bade his soldier friends adieu,
Tenderest ties were broken.

Yes, there was sorrow on the bright Gap,
Amidst his comrades of that noble band;
He was passing from them, never more
To see his native home.

He was borne to the home of his loved ones,
But his lips were silent, and his brow was cold,
No more on earth, dear friends and favorite ones,
Will he ever behold.

But we hope that in a brighter, fairer land,
Where blight and trouble never come,
He has found amidst the angel band—
An eternal home.

Sorrow dwells at home around the once bright hearth,
A wife and loved ones bitter tears often flow—
But calm thee, friend, the cares of earth,
Never more he'll know.

He sleeps within a soldier's grave,
Near his own beloved home—
Over his grave soon may the proud banner wave
Of our country's freedom.

June, 1862. L. M. JONES.

DIED,—Of sore throat, on the 12th of Oct., 1862, SUSAN M., daughter of Jas. & Sarah E. Rutherford, aged 3 years 8 months and 24 days. Thus death, the King of terrors, makes his ravages on every stage of human life. While the father is gone to stand upon the battle-field, the fell monster comes and takes his loved little Susan. O! what sad intelligence for the absent father, but how delightful to think that when death took down the earthly tent, bright angels kissed the spirit away from earth to wing its hallowed flight to realms of bliss. O! how sweetly she sings. Father, mother, prepare to go to your little Susan in her heavenly home. May God give comfort. SARAH.

TABITHA ELIZABETH, infant daughter of John H. & Dorcas Calfee, was born June 23rd, 1861, and died of Pseudo membranous Laryngitis the 11th instant, aged one year 3 months and 18 days. We are admonished by the death of infants, and should always be ready: but we have a consolation in their death—they are saved through Christ.

"Their feeble frames my power shall raise,
And mould with heavenly skill;
I'll give them tongues to sing my praise,
And hands to do my will."

May they meet little Tabitha in heaven.

$150 REWARD.

Catch the deserters--Bring them to justice!

HEADQUARTERS 62D REG'T N. C. TROOPS,
HAYNESVILLE, TENN., Oct. 9, 1862.

I WILL give one hundred and fifty dollars reward for the apprehension and delivery to me at these Headquarters of the following named deserters from my command, Company C, 62nd Regiment N. C. Troops, or thirty dollars for either of them, viz: Montraville M. Roberson, H. F. Roberson, Posey A. Roberson, Elisha Franklin and John Messer.

DESCRIPTION.

MONTRAVILLE M. ROBERSON, is thirty years of age, 5 feet 11 inches high, auburn hair, swathy complexion, slender built, and weighs about 150 pounds.

H. F. ROBERSON is 28 years of age, 6 feet high, auburn hair, lisps when talking, and weighs 170 pounds.

POSEY A. ROBERSON is 24 years of age, swathy complexion, five feet 9 inches high, weighs 140 pounds, and is very stoop-shouldered, and would make a fine looking soldier if his head was turned the other way. All three of the above named persons are sons of Alexander Roberson, familiarly known in Haywood county as the copper-bottom, and are supposed to be lurking about in the mountains of Western North Carolina and East Tennessee.

ELISHA FRANKLIN is 33 years old, has sandy hair, grey eyes, freckled face, 5 feet 9 inches high, and weighs 150 pounds.

JOHN MESSER is 28 years old, light hair, beard nearly white, fair skin, 6 feet high, and weighs 160 pounds. The two latter are supposed to be in the mountains in Haywood county.

The good of the service requires that these men should be caught and brought out of their hiding places and punished severely as an example to others. I therefore appeal to all good citizens—every one who has the cause of Southern Independence at heart—to keep a sharp look out for them, and on the very first opportunity to arrest them and bring them here to me, and get the liberal reward offered.

By command of Col. R. G. A. Love,
JOHN TURPIN, Capt.
Co. C, 62nd Reg't N. C. Troops.
